History framed in the busy streets of Sadar

The legacy of Sadar Bazaar is deep-rooted in the history of Delhi. It has been the heart of Delhi for last 600 years. Delhi 6 was originally designed by princess Jahanara in the 17th century.

It is in North Delhi and is considered to be one of the most famous and greatest markets of Delhi.

Essence blowing in the air of Sadar

BRICKS OF HISTORY

With a history that dates back to the Mughal era, it was known as the King's ganj or market place even during the Mughal rule.

DELICIOUS DISHES

Delhi-6 has famous lanes with the best street food or junk food in the country. Opposite of the Jama Masjid are lanes of traditional restaurants.

SHOPPING SCENERY

Sadar Bazaar caters to items ranging from cloths, toys, household products, daily needs products, stationeries, costume and imitation jewellery and many more.

STEPS COUNTED IN THE STREETS OF SADAR

Considered to be one of the biggest wholesale markets in Asia, from local traders to tourists Sadar Bazaar is crowded all the year round. According to the traders' association, the average footfall in the market is 1 lakh per day, which goes up by up to 30% during the festive season.

Sadar Bazaar consists of numerous smaller markets, including Pratap market, Swadeshi market and Teliwara or Timber market. The market, as a whole, not only deals in household goods, but also in various other items such as toys, imitation jewellery and stationery.

जर्ने जर्ने में उरी का नूर है,
झाँक खुद में वो ना तुझ से दूर है,
इश्क है उस से तो सब से इश्क कर,
इस इबादत का यही दर्तूर है।
